

Announcing the 2013 KOTESOL Handbook

In 1999 KOTESOL published a collection of information on living and working in Korea as well as practical ideas for teachers in Korean classrooms. The original version can be found here: <http://www.koreatesol.org/content/kotesol-handbook>

KOTESOL is very happy to announce that it is updating the handbook and eliciting submissions from members.

What we need...

Ideas! We invite members to submit

- Lesson plans
- Creative tasks (Young Learners especially)
- Communicative tasks (University / Adult)
- Problem solving tasks (all ages)
- Anecdotes on teaching in Korea
- Artwork (either by you or your students)

What you get

- Listing as a contributor in The Handbook
- A hardcopy of The Handbook
- A digital copy of The Handbook
- The satisfaction of knowing you have shared your ideas with like-minded teachers in Korea and have contributed to their (and your) professional development

How we need it.

- Send your submissions to handbook@koreatesol.org
- Include the following information:
 - Your Name
 - Your Chapter Affiliation
 - Your Work Affiliation (if applicable / you are comfortable giving this)
 - A title for the submission
 - Preparation time required
 - Run time (e.g. 5-10 minutes)
 - Materials needed (e.g. Pencil and paper)
 - Target Language area (e.g. "Used for teaching prepositions")
 - Language Skills used (e.g. Speaking, Reading etc)
 - Student Level and age group (Young Learners / Middle and High School / University / Adult / Business)
- Please keep submissions to around two (2) pages. You can view the 1999 edition at the address above, have a look at the style and layout to inform you in terms of the style required for submissions
- Please use Microsoft Word (.doc/.docx) or compatible format.
- Please send images as separate .png files

When we need it.

The closing date for submissions is Monday 15 July 5pm KST

Please feel free to inquire prior to submitting. handbook@koreatesol.org