

2018 Thanksgiving Symposium

Daejeon-ChungCheong KOTESOL

September 16, 2018 — Woosong University, Daejeon, South Korea

Deadline for Proposals: October 8th, 2018

Korea TESOL invites interested professionals to submit a proposal to present at the 2018 Thanksgiving Symposium to be held at Woosong University, Saturday November 10th 2018.

Regular Sessions

The Program Committee is accepting proposals for:

1. Presentations (50 minutes): Lecture-oriented presentation focused on best practices, and practical solutions.
2. Workshops (50 minutes): Hands-on presentation suitable for either early-career or established professionals.
3. Panel (50 minutes): Multiple short presentations focused on a similar topic.
4. Research reports (20 minutes): Focused on either original or replicated studies, or action research.
5. Poster Session: A visual display for sharing ideas, projects, and/or research which allows for short and informal discussion between attendees as they circulate within the poster-session area. Note: No A/V equipment is available.

Only proposals that demonstrate an outstanding depth of understanding, providing either critical examination of the topic or the opportunity for substantial skill development on the part of attendees will be accepted.

Proposals should include the following information, to be submitted via the webform below:

- Presenter's name, affiliation, and current contact information
- Session type (50-minute presentation, 50-minute workshop, or 20-minute report)
- Title (Maximum 10 words)
- Proposal (Between 200-250 words): rationale, methodology, and detailed description of session.
- Biographical statement (Maximum 50 words)

The Program Committee welcomes proposals from any and all, regardless of race, gender, nationality or mother tongue. The only expectation is that the presentation be given in English at a level commensurate with professional-level discourse on the topic in question.
