

Errata

CANCELLED
Day/Time	Room	Presenter Name	Title
Sat. 10 a.m.	B168	Fan (Gabriel) Fang	Professional Identity of Chinese Teachers of English in the Globalized World
Sat. 1:30 p.m.	B109	Jake Whiddon	Optimizing learning through differentiation: A higher skill set for mixed-ability groups
Sat. 4:30 p.m.	B109	Jake Whiddon	Language for Life: Developing & Integrating Life Skills in Language Teaching
Sat 5:50	A305	Sanghee Kang	Preference of Korean Learners in English Pronunciation
Sun. 2 p.m.	B109	Jake Whiddon	Skilling up for academic success: Essential skills and competencies for the 21st Century
CHANGED
Day/Time	Room	Presenter Name	Title
Presenter change
Sat. 3:55 p.m.	B112	Daniel Mills & Sean Toland	Using 'How to' Videos to Enhance 21st Century Literacies in EFL Classrooms
Sat. 5:55 p.m.	B112	Daniel Mills & Jeremy White	Acceptance and Usage of Digital Games in CALL
Presentation length
The following two presentations are 20 minutes long, not 45 minutes long
Sat. 5:30-5:50 p.m.	B178	Siti Nurul Azkiyah	Developing Individually-Tailored English Teacher Training in Indonesia
Sun. 9-9:20 am.	B168	Benjamin McBride & Wade Chilcoat	Do Korean university students think they are interesting? A comparative study.

Additional information

- The list of vetters on p. 4 is incomplete. Thanks are also due to Wayne Finley and Michael Free.
- The following information was not included in the book:

??? YL/VYL//S/U/A ???

WHAT CAN THEY MEAN?

At the KOTESOL International Conference, we try to have a variety of presentations on many different topics.

Not all presentations are of interest to all attendees.

To help you choose, we have put a code with every presentation. The code is based on whether the presenter thinks the session is aimed at, or of interest to TEACHERS OF

YL/VYL – Young Learners or Very Young Learners

S – Teens or secondary school aged learners

U – University students

A – Adult learners (not in a traditional school setting)