

Call for Papers

KOTESOL Seoul Chapter 12th Annual Conference Theme: Stepping Up

KOTESOL Seoul Chapter is seeking workshop-type and research presentations for the chapter's Annual Conference in Seoul on April 24, 2016 (Sunday, 9:30~5:30PM). All presentations will be 25 minutes (research) to 45 minutes (workshop) in length.

Presenters from elementary to university levels are strongly encouraged to submit proposals related to the following aspects:

1. socio-cultural content in ELT listening, reading, writing, and speaking materials;
2. practice and implications in delivering teaching methods and strategies;
3. learning styles and motivation straight into the classroom;
4. useful activities for all proficiency levels.

All proposals must include a description of the workshop at least 200 words in length. Your proposal should also include biographical information (cell number and email address) in not more than 50 words. Your proposal and bio should be written in Times Roman 12 and should fit together on ONE A4 page in ..doc format (Microsoft Word 2007 or earlier version).

The deadline is on April 3, 2016 (Sunday, 11:30PM). Please send your conference proposal and bio to Ian at professionalworkian@gmail.com / president@seoulkotesol.org. For further information, please check out <https://koreatesol.org/seoul>.