

Join the KOTESOL Daejeon-Chungcheong Chapter on Saturday, April 8th, 2017

for an evening full of educators, delicious food, and laughter!

- MEET- UP - There is a great used book store in Cheonan called Ebony and Ivory. It is right next to the side-by-side bus terminal there. A group from the Daejeon-Chungcheong KOTESOL Chapter plans to meet at Ebony and Ivory on Saturday the 8th from 6:30-7:15pm.
- DINNER AND DISCUSSION! After sharing book recommendations and stocking up on reading materials, the Daejeon-Chungcheong KOTESOL Chapter will enjoy dinner together (also somewhere near the bus terminals – perhaps at an Indian restaurant well-loved by Cheonan locals, but we can determine the exact location that evening based on consensus). We can freely share some of our greatest lessons, and get ideas from others on any things we want to improve in our classes. Dinner will be from about 7:30-9pm.

FOLLOWED BY ...

- FREE COMEDY NIGHT! Stand Up Seoul is putting on a FREE comedy show at Club Used in Cheonan (also within walking distance of the side-by-side bus terminals). The Daejeon-Chungcheong KOTESOL Chapter is full of teachers who love to laugh. Why not join us as we enjoy this show together? Doors open at 9pm, and the show will start at 10pm. The show is scheduled to end at midnight.*

NOTE: Please be aware that many buses and trains from Cheonan to Daejeon stop running before midnight, so plan your transportation/sleeping arrangements with that in mind!

Like the “Kotesol: Daejeon-Chungcheong Chapter” page on Facebook to keep up-to-date about future events!

Contact Patrick Conway at 01075158262 or Jeff Hatter at 01064036924 with any questions about this event (for instance, if you want to meet up with us at the restaurant rather than the bookstore, and you need to know exactly where we have decided to go).

Koreatesol.org/daejeon

daejeon@koreatesol.org